Mark Savage

Tennis Director

USPTA Master Professional

Msavage@sportsplex-nw.com

0-20 his freshman year in college followed by a 21-1 record his sophomore year and named all-region player. Mark clearly knows what it takes to lose and win. That alone sets him apart from most coaches. His ability to relate to a person's own sports mortality gives him an edge that helps every student improve quickly and efficiently. Mark helps players understand that one should play smart, dig deep, and do things fundamentally correct. Mark is as funny as he is serious making for a unique blend of teaching.

Jason Stokes

USPTA Elite Professional

Jstokes@sporsplex-nw.com

He grabbed the racket at age of 21. The game became a career. Played college tennis all four years! Like his students, he learned quickly and so do his students. Loves empowering and seeing growth. Two things you get from every lesson – fast improvement and faster humorous quips that are truly quotable.

Andreas Radermacher

USPTA Elite Professional

Aradermacher@sportsplex-nw.com

Andreas was introduced to tennis at the age of 8 by his parents. He also played soccer, but it was soon eclipsed by his love for tennis. His most proud accomplishment is raising his two children. They've taught him to run towards what you fear and to focus only on what you can control. In his spare time, Andreas likes to watch Professional Wrestling and movies... he's a fountain of useless movie quotes and trivia. Andreas enjoys breaking down and teaching the fundamentals of stroke production. Having over 18 years of tennis teaching experience, he can spot and fix weaknesses in your game quickly and easily.

Nick Stroynick

USPTA Professional

Nstroynick@sportsplex-nw.com

He has an uncanny ability to see and get to every ball making him the envy of every club player. "I get to play a sport that I love and I get to help others enjoy the same passion. Nick loves to compete in everything we call tennis, from local events and socials, to USTA teams and USTA Tournaments. In 2017, Nick attained the 5.0 NTRP rating
